

What is Zinio?

Zinio, the award-winning digital magazine service, is now available at Middlesex Public Library. Your library card now gives you access to over 100 magazine titles, including Bloomberg Businessweek, Cosmopolitan, Elle, ESPN, Marie Claire, and much more!

These digital magazines can be viewed on your computer, or downloaded and used via the Zinio app on mobile devices like Kindle, iPad, iPhone, Android and Windows 8. Users have simultaneous access to the content, and it stays on your device forever. This means that you never have to return it, or wait for someone else to return it before you can download.

How to use Zinio

Click on the Zinio logo on the library's website under eContent OR go directly to rbdigital.com/lmxac.

Next you will click where it says "Create New Account"

A pop-up window will appear where you will enter your Middlesex Library card number.

Click on Next.

Then you will enter some information, including your name, email address and a password (at least 7 characters, with a combination of letters and numbers). Then click Create Account.

Now you can browse the collection! Choose a magazine that you would like to read and click on the cover. Click on Complete Checkout.

Next you will create a Zinio.com account. You can use the same email address and password as you used earlier.

Click on Register.

Now you can read the magazine in your internet browser or in the zinio app on your mobile device.
